

Sermon Notes

9:02 on Wednesday, April 19, 1995

"I am not going to tell you what to do, but I will tell you who you are. And if you know who you are, then you will know what to do."
-Hendrik Kraemer

1 Peter 2:9 - <sup>9</sup> But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

The mission of the Memorial Marathon is to celebrate life, reach for the future, honor the memories of those who were killed, and unite the world in hope.

We remember.

The worst thing is never the last thing.

We proclaim the Good News of Jesus.

We encourage one another.

Hebrews 10:24-25 - <sup>24</sup> And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup> not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

We persevere.

Hebrews 12:1-2 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup> looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Most people overestimate what they can do in the short run and underestimate what they can do in the long haul of a faithful life.
